What is a target market determination?

A Target Market Determination (TMD) is a determination that AIG has made that sets out:

- the class of customers that comprise AIG's target market for this Product, taking into consideration their likely needs, objectives and financial situation;
- any conditions and restrictions placed on retail product distribution conduct in relation to the Product;
- the events and circumstances that would reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate;
- the review periods for the TMD; and
- the reporting obligations for the TMD.

This TMD does not provide any financial product advice on the Product and does not take into consideration the needs, objectives and financial situation of individual customers.

The terms and conditions of the Product are set out in the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). Insurance products and services are provided by AIG Australia Limited ABN 93 004 727 753 AFSL 381686. This TMD does not form part of the insurance contract and is not a summary of the Product's terms and conditions. Customers should review the PDS before making any decision on whether to purchase this Product.

AIG will make this TMD available to any person, upon request, free of charge.

Terms used in this TMD, which are defined in the Corporations Act, have the same meaning as under that legislation.

1. Target market

This section of the TMD describes the class of retail client customers (Customers) who comprise the target market for the Product, taking into account their likely needs, objectives and financial situation.

Outlined below is a description of the Product, key eligibility criteria and key Product attributes that affect whether this Product is likely to meet the needs, objectives and financial situation of the target market.

The target market is Customers:

- who meet key eligibility criteria of the Product; and
- where the key Product attributes meet their likely needs, objectives and financial situation.

Product Description and Key Attributes

The Product is designed to provide HP Care Pack Customers accidental damage cover on their eligible HP branded device (Device). The Product will pay the cost of repair or replacement of the eligible Device.

The Product can be purchased for a one (1), two (2) or three (3) year period from the date of purchase. The accidental damage protection provided, covers one (1) qualified event per total aggregate years of cover. In the event of the entire replacement of the Device, the accidental damage coverage and HP Care Pack services will terminate.

Please refer to the PDS for full details of the Product including benefits.

Financial Situation

This Product is likely to meet the financial situation of Customers who:

- require insurance coverage in line with the policy limits available under the Product; and
- have the ability to pay premiums in accordance with the policy benefits, service fees and charges, considering their financial circumstances and any vulnerabilities they may experience.

Consistency between the Product and target market

This Product is likely to be consistent with the needs, objectives and financial situation of Customers in the target market because the Product provides cover to those Customers who:

- meet key eligibility criteria; and
- require cover for the types of damage that Customers in the target market are seeking to insure against.

2. Distribution conditions

This section of the TMD describes the conditions and restrictions on retail product distribution conduct that apply to Customers who are retail clients. It does not apply to other Customers (wholesale clients) who may purchase the Product.

The Product is distributed by AIG through HP online or telephone sales as well as selected authorised resellers selling HP products.

The accidental damage cover is available for Customers to purchase after five (5) days from the purchase of an eligible Device and subject to any applicable add-on insurance deferred sales model requirements.

The Product is not to be distributed in any other way.

HP and HP appointed distributors will only issue the Product to Customers that meet its eligibility criteria, which align with the target market set out in section 1 above. Distribution conditions are set out in contractual arrangements between AIG and HP.

HP ensures that all representatives involved in the distribution of the Product:

- have a general understanding of the likely needs, objectives and financial situation of the class of Customers that fall within the target market; and
- have been trained in the relevant acceptance criteria for the Product.

3. Review period and triggers

AIG will review this TMD during the following periods to ensure that it remains appropriate:

First review period	Within one year from the TMD's commencement date.
Ongoing review periods	At least every two years after the completion of the first review period.

AIG will also review this TMD if there are events or circumstances that reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate. The triggers for this review may arise from:

Trigger	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • material changes to the cover provided by the Product, • the discovery of a relevant and material deficiency in the Product's disclosure documentation, • a change in AIG's risk acceptance criteria or underwriting guidelines that may impact the suitability of the Product for the target market, • a material change to the distribution of the Product, • complaints or other feedback indicative of the Product no longer being suitable for the target market, • claims denials or other issues indicative of the Product no longer being suitable for the target market, • material change in sales and Product performance metrics including but not limited to cancellation rates, Product value and affordability, benefits to Customers, and the like, • a material change to the legislation, • issues arising from internal compliance monitoring, breaches or internal audit findings, or • concerns raised by a regulator, the Code Governance Committee or the Australian Financial Complaints Authority.
